

2026 RMF U16 Program Information

The 2026 RMF U16 program is for players born in 2011 or 2012. Players register for the program and attend evaluation camps. Players selected, will represent the RMF South Sask. U16 team, which will be part of the selection process for the 2026 Football Saskatchewan U16 team. Team Sask. will compete in the Under 16 Football Canada Western Challenge. The U16 Western Challenge is hosted and sanctioned by Football Canada, and will be played June 28 – July 3, 2026 in Winnipeg.

The registration fee for the U16 South Sask. Program is $125.00. This includes 2 off-season workouts on March 1st & March 21st. It also includes the Main camp April 11th & 12th in Regina. After the main camp, and each subsequent camp, coaches will decide which players will be invited back to the next camp. Each additional camp will cost $75. The camp fees will be applied to the $500.00 total fee for players that are selected to represent the RMF U16 South Sask. Team in the Prairie Bowl Games.

RMF will have our South Sask Team and SMF will pick a North Sask. Team. These teams will play two games in the Prairie Bowl the first two weekends in June. Football Sask. will also have a camp on April 18th in Saskatoon and April 19th in Regina. The U16 Football Saskatchewan team will select 75 players from these two Camps and two Prairie Bowl Games. Football Sask will announce the Team Sask U16 roster by June 15th. This team will compete in the Under 16 Football Canada Western Challenge in Winnipeg.
